Making Sense of Alphabet
Soup

Saturday, Aug 16th 9AM - 4 PM

This energizing, empowering workshop will provide a deeper understanding into a traumatized child's thinking and behavior. Learn powerful interventions to give them a turning point from sinking to success! Proven techniques will get you started right away in making a difference in the life of a challenging child.

This seminar will be useful to parents of children with these difficulties and others:

- Attention Deficit Disorder
- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
- Tourette's Syndrome
- Oppositional Defiant Disorder
- Bipolar Disorder

Seminar attendees will:

- Gain a clear understanding of Reactive Attachment Disorder and how it looks in an alphabet soup of diagnoses.
- Have clear, accurate tools to assess high risk children.
- Obtain a step by step plan of powerful parenting interventions.
- Learn how the latest brain research relates to treatment of children with Reactive Attachment Disorder.
- Learn how you can help parents of challenging children.

About our speaker:

Nancy Thomas has been a therapeutic parenting specialist since 1985. She and her husband Jerry have shared their life and home with many emotionally disturbed children over 25 years. Nancy's hands-on experience, her high success rate in helping children heal, her well-organized training materials, and an unflagging sense of humor have made Nancy a highly respected parent trainer around the world. In 2001, Nancy joined with Help One Child to form Camp Connection, an annual week-long family camp to help families with children suffering from attachment disorders.
